PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

EIGHT LIVES LOST.

SENATE HOTEL IN CHICAGO BURNED.

MANY NARROW ESCAPES.

There Were No Fire Escapes and Guests Jumped From the Windows to Escape.

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—Fire broke out in a cheap lodging house known as the Senate hotel, on East Madison street, at 7 o'clock this morning. The hotel occupied the two upper floors of a three story building and was divided into twenty-six rooms.

The fire was first discovered by Harry Duval, a guest from Colorado, who ran through the building kicking in doors and awakening the guests as rapidly as he could. The flames made rapid progress and by the time Duval had made the rounds of the various halls his own escape was almost cut off. The stairway was burning beneath him, but he bravely dashed through the flames and made his escape.

There was no fire escape to the building and the guests who awoke too late to descend by the stairway found themselves caught like rats in a trap.

Many jumped from the windows and others slid down the water-pipes, while still others were rescued by firemen.

In all eight lives are known to have been lost.

The killed were: Harry Godfrey, James Taylor, Mrs. Mary Morton, all of Sycamore, Ill.; Ed Short, an unknown man and two unknown women.

The injured were: Jay Godfrey, Mrs. Godfrey, Grace Godfrey, Will Ultery, F. A. Coons, Mrs. F. A. Coons, Flora Coons, R. L. Morton, Matthew Ahrens, F. Myer, L. M. Rogers and O. Palmer.

MURDERED FOR FIVE CENTS.

Ed Enoch Killed at Topeka Over a Trivial Matter.

TOPEKA, Kas., Aug. 14.—In a quarrel over the payment of a debt of five cents, Ed Enoch, a boy of 17 years, was murdered on Kansas avenue last night by Ed McGruder, a companion about his own age. Enoch had borrowed a nickel from McGruder and had given his knife as security. McGruder, who has for the past eight years been a bootblack and one of the toughest youngsters in Topeka, accosted Enoch on Kansas avenue in North Topeka, shortly before 8 o'clock last evening and demanded immediate payment of his loan. Enoch did not have the money and retreated from McGruder who carried an open knife in his hand and made several threatening attempts to assault him. McGruder kept up his work until he succeeded in plunging his knife blade into the right breast of Enoch, inflicting a wound from which the assaulted boy died in less than twenty minutes. McGruder was arrested.

Shot and Instantly Killed.

BUCKLIN, Mo., Aug. 14.—Dr. D. V. Howard who had been separated from his wife for some time, attempted to force an entrance into his wife's residence last night. He shot two charges from a shotgun through the door, when some one fired a bullet through the door, and was attempting to break the door down. It took effect in the doctor's eye and produced instant death. It is not known who fired the fatal bullet.

President Cleveland Resting.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., Aug. 14.—The president spent Sunday at home with his family and Dr. Bryant. The cool north wind which prevailed kept the president in doors about all day.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 14.—Rachael Boyle, aged 23 years, during religious excitement yesterday, cut off a portion of her lip and then broiled it as an offering to God. She is now in the Philadelphia hospital.

Denounced Midway Plaisance.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Aug. 14.—Ex-Senator T. W. Palmer, president of the World's fair commission, was the speaker at the national services in Asbury Park auditorium yesterday. There was an attendance of nearly 5,000. Mr. Palmer spoke on the magnitude of the fair. In speaking of the Midway Plaisance he said that some of the exhibits were far from reputable, and that some of the directors were in favor of closing up that part of the exhibition. He predicted that the fair would make no money.

Late Cholera Report.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Late reports as to the condition of the cholera cases say that the disease manifests itself in a mild form. Two new cases were reported last night, making fourteen now in quarantine.

ANOTHER BIG FIRE.

Minneapolis Swept by a Destructive Fire—Loss, Two Millions.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 14.—Nearly two million dollars worth of property was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon in the northeastern portion of the city. Over one thousand houses were burned and fifteen hundred people were rendered homeless.

The fire was first discovered at 1:30 in Clark's box factory, but by the time the fire department responded to the alarm the flames, fanned by a furious south wind, were beyond control. The fire swept north at a rapid rate involving Lenhart's wagon works, the Lake ice house and other large establishments.

Great embers were carried through the air and fires started blocks away. All along the east bank of the river are located mills and lumber yards and east of them are stores and frame residences. These burned like tinder and hundreds of people were made homeless in a few minutes.

During the excitement an old man dropped dead from heart disease, caused by excitement, and two boys are alleged to have been drowned in the river when flying from the flames.

SETTLEMENT EXPECTED TODAY.

It Is Believed That the Strikers Have Decided to Accept Devlin's Proposition.

PITTSBURG, Kas., Aug. 14.—A conference with mine workers yesterday has resulted in the opinion that there will be a settlement offered at the delegate convention today on the basis of Manager Devlin's proposition. That such a settlement has been worked for for several days by the business men's committee is certain. A prominent member of that committee unhesitatingly declares that the strike will be settled to-day. Jack Holliday, of the miners' executive committee, stated that the strike will be settled on Manager Devlin's proposition.

Suicide of a Methodist Preacher.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 14.—S. D. Roberts, a Methodist minister of much prominence and presiding elder of the Beatrice district, committed suicide last night at Crab Orchard by shooting himself. His mind had been unbalanced for some time as a result of financial reverses.

THEY MAY STRIKE.

The Rock Island Switchmen Are Opposed to the Proposed Reduction of Their Wages.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 14.—The Rock Island switchmen held a secret meeting here yesterday to take action against the proposed 10 per cent cut in wages. The chairman of the grievance committee tried to secure their signatures to an agreement to stand the cut for ninety days, but the men refused and many of them talk strike.

The Banner Has Arrived.

The beautiful silk banner awarded to Sedalia lodge No. 16, Woodmen of the World, by the sovereign grand lodge, for having secured the largest increase in membership for the first six months of 1893, was received today. It is a beauty, indeed.

Mr. McGraw, sr., was thrown from a street car Sunday in Kansas City, the journal of this morning says, and his back was broken, his left arm fractured in two places and his left hand mangled, causing his death at an early hour this morning.

Sported With the Gloves.

There is said to have been a red-hot contest with the gloves between two darkeys in a room in the business part of the city yesterday, to witness which several sports paid 25 cents each. It was give and take in a lively manner for several minutes, and the verdict of the spectators was that they received the worth of their money.

A CULINARY PROBLEM.

By MARY CHAHOON.

WE were busy one day in the kitchen, I deep in some cook-book lore, And he perched up on the table Driving a "coach-and-four."

But when I had finished this sentence In a receipt I had found— "Set on the stove and stir constantly," The driver looked around.

And leaving his play for a minute, He whispered in my ear— "How could any one 'set on the stove' And not 'stir constantly,' dear?"

HE WANTS $5000 DAMAGES

J. BOONE DODGE AFTER DR. WOOD AGAIN.

This Time Three Attorneys Will Prosecute the Case—The Petition.

J. Boone Dodge, traveling agent for the St. Louis Republic, today brought suit in the Pettis county circuit court for $5,000 damages against Dr. H. W. Wood, owner of Wood's opera house. Plaintiffs attorneys are George W. Goad and M. C. Smith, of Springfield, Mo., and Hon. P. D. Hastain, of this city.

The present suit is the culmination of one instituted against Dr. Wood a few months ago for $10,000 damages because of plaintiff having been ejected from the opera house, the particulars of which case DEMOCRAT readers are thoroughly familiar with.

The petition in the suit brought to-day alleges that while the previous suit was pending, Dr. Wood addressed letters to Col. Chas. H. Jones, editor, and G. W. Jones, business manager of the Republic, charging that Boone had used his Back to Jail.

Bob Edwards was released from jail this morning, after having served a sentence for "borrowing" some wagon wheels from a neighbor. He was at once rearrested, though, and went back to jail on a fine of $1 and costs assessed by Justice Fisher, for having assaulted J. H. Gilpin with a wagon whip.

Official Paper of the City of Sedalia.

CONGRESS will do its work. Let's do ours.

SEE that Sedalia furnishes no invitation to the cholera germs to settle among us.

BUSINESS failures are on the decrease. There were fewer last week than during the week before.

READ the advertisements in the DEMOCRAT. The men who hustle for trade deserve the patronage of the public.

"PRESENT indications," says the New York Sun, "are that the increase in the volume of circulation this month will be unparalleled in the history of the country."

THE scramble among a half dozen eastern democrats for the leadership of the anti-silver forces on the floor of the house is in very bad taste. The position belongs of right to some republican congressman.

This is a panic that hurts the big fish as bad as it does the little ones. On Saturday the banks in the oil region refused to cash the checks of the Standard Oil company. It is not that the company is not solvent, but currency is scarce.

THE advertising columns of the SUNDAY MORNING DEMOCRAT clearly demonstrate that the revival of business has begun. The enterprising business men of Sedalia are not the kind who sit down and complain. They are hustlers and will make business.

SEVERAL large property owners of Sedalia expressed themselves in favor of pushing the work of macadamizing the streets. Really there is nothing to stand in the way of such work. If the property owners on any street are willing to improve it the council will do all that is possible to hurry the commencement of the work.

THE problem of securing a leader for the anti-silver forces, which is bothering the sound-money democrats in the house, ought not to be difficult. "What's the matter with 'Tom' Reed?"—Globe-Democrat.

CHAR Zee is the natural leader of the anti-silver forces and he should be recognized as such; but, thank God, he is not speaker of the house. One infliction of that kind in a century is enough.

THE gold reserve in the Bank of England is being rapidly depleted. Last week $20,000,000 were drawn out and shipped to this country. Now, will some goldbug who has attributed the export of gold from this country to our use of silver in our currency, please explain why gold is leaving gold-standard England? The logic of facts knocks out the theory of the financier with monotonous frequency.

THE laugh is on an Atchison man. He drew $1200 in gold from a bank and buried it in an oyster can and then went away for a visit of a few days. When he came back some one had stolen his gold. There are in every city bold thieves who watch and are informed as to who keep money in their houses, and they are reaping a rich harvest. Many a man goes to sleep with a few hundred dollars securely hidden, as he thinks, only to awake in the morning and find that he has been robbed. The only safe place to keep money is in a bank. If you are afraid of a bank, then lend your money on good security or invest it in some safe business or buy a piece of property—a farm or a house in a good, live town.

DON'T BE ALARMED.

The citizen of Sedalia, be he working man or capitalist, has cause to feel thankful that his lot in life is cast in a community which is so nearly independent of outside influences and so strong in resources of its own.

The condition of affairs in Sedalia is a surprise to those who have kept themselves informed as to conditions elsewhere.

With a business stagnation almost without a parallel in the country at large, Sedalia has scarcely felt the effects of it.

With business houses failing, manufactories closing down and banks compelled to suspend in every section of the country, Sedalia has quietly gone along transacting her business as usual.

We have scarcely had a failure that could be charged to the times. Our banks have remained solid as the government itself and met every demand promptly and to the letter.

Our shops and factories are still open and turning out their products as usual.

There has been some falling off in trade, to be sure, but many houses report a better business during the past month than they enjoyed during July 1892.

The are some laboring men out of employment, but not nearly so large a per cent. as are in idleness in other localities, and there is a fixed and settled determination to find enough work for these men to keep the wolf from the door.

There is no cause for alarm on the part of anybody. The panic is over. Money is scarce and will remain so for sometime, but the danger period has passed.

Everybody who has studied the situation feels confident as to the future and, as Mayor Stevens said Saturday night, Sedalia will have work for her laboring people as soon as it can be found anywhere.

A COWARDLY COURSE.

The Springfield Democrat calls attention to a state of affairs which, if correctly stated, is going to demonstrate to many a wholesale house how foolish it is to mix business and politics.

After referring to the multitude of circulars sent to business men by the New York bankers predicting all sorts of disasters and scaring the timid into withdrawing their money from the channels of trade, the Democrat has this to say of the course of certain wholesale houses:

"Wholesale houses in St. Louis which have an extended trade in this portion of the state have been brought into action, and through their traveling salesmen are endeavoring to accomplish that in which the Wall street circulars failed. These houses have sorely pressed creditors throughout the southwest, and instructions to their salesmen are that these retail dealers must be impressed with the necessity of calling upon Missouri senators and representatives for the unconditional repeal of the Sherman act—this being done in connection with suggestions of the necessity of close collections and a curtailment of credit.

It is a deliberate and cowardly attempt to intimidate the business men of the southwest into expressions foreign to their convictions, and will, of course, in some quarters have its weight. The Democrat's advice to its readers thus approached is that they request these emissaries to attend strictly to their business, which is that of selling goods. And an alleged sentiment that is the outcome of such a Draconian method of proselytizing will cut a sorry figure as a lever of influence when our representatives in congress are apprised of the nature of its origin."

ON THE RIGHT SIDE.

That able, conservative and conscientious journal, the Sweet Springs Herald, has the following complimentary reference to Congressman Heard and his position on public questions.

What the Herald says is the opinion of the voters of the district who have watched with interest and admiration the honorable career of this faithful public servant:

"If there is one man in public life from this state who is completely in touch with the people of his district and state, that man is Hon. John T. Heard. When the Sherman law was pending in the house of representatives he spoke and voted against it; and in his speech pointed out clearly and forcibly the blighting effect of the law on the business of the country. With the eye of a statesman he saw that the law was an expedient which could be used to destroy silver money, and warned the advocates of the measure that such would be the result. He was right then, as he has been at all times on the material questions before congress. He now in clear and well-defined terms announces that he will not vote to repeal this law until a substitute for it shall have been agreed upon. He does not go into long spun theories about the necessity of increasing the value of the silver in the silver dollar, but declares for free coinage of silver. He is right now, also. Mr. Heard is one of the ablest men in congress and his votes and speeches at all times reflect the views of his constituents. During his term in congress which has been a brilliant one, he has at all times withstood the blandishments of the money power, whose agents hunt the corridors of the capital of the nation, and has voted and spoke for the plain people of Missouri and the west, and in the present congress, the most important since the war, Mr. Heard will be found on the side of the people on every question, and if the wrongs which have been inflicted upon them for 20 years are not corrected it will be because his voice will be unheeded and his counsel disregarded."

AMUSEMENTS.

The Lyceum Theater company will on to-night produce that powerful scenic comedy drama, "Love vs. Money." The scene is laid in England and abounds in thrilling climaxes and situations. The explosion of the coal mines in the third act is a realistic occurrence. The company carry special scenery for this play.

Miss Louise Reming and Mac. M. Barnes and little Edna Reming have parts in this piece to fully demonstrate their talent, little Edna taking a double part with new songs and dances. The whole cast, numbering twenty-three people, is a capable one, and will no doubt establish their popularity to Sedalia audiences to-morrow night. Ladies free to-morrow night as usual.

DUNDEE HOME SOLD.

Mr. Minter and Family Will Remove to Lafayette County.

The home of C. D. Minter and family, in "Dundee Place," west of town, owned by J. V. Farwell & Co., of Chicago, has been sold to Mr. Cassidy, of Salina, Kas., for $12,000, and Mr. B. F. Holway, of Smithton, will take possession of the property about the 1st of September for the purchaser.

Mr. Minter and his esteemed family will remove within the next fortnight to the Farwell farm, at Hall's station, three and one-half miles this side of Lexington, where the latch string will always be on the outside to their many Sedalia friends.

Sedalia never had a more enterprising citizen than Charlie Minter, nor one who is more deserving of success in every walk of life, and the DEMOCRAT wishes for him and his unbounded happiness and prosperity in their new home.

You Can't Down Him.

He is still on top. Who? Why H. B. Wieman; who still sells the best Dover coal for the least money. Get August prices. Telephone 125.

TAKEN HOME TODAY.

Young Birchfield, Who Was Injured Last Saturday.

Ira Birchfield, the young man who was injured in an attempt to board the Lexington branch train last Saturday—at least such is the supposition—was taken to his home at Sweet Springs this morning by his father, who came down after him yesterday.

The boy's condition improved greatly Sunday, but he could give no explanation of how the accident had occurred. The father was inclined to think that his son had been assaulted and robbed of a dollar or two that he had when he came to town, but there is nothing to substantiate such a theory.

It is known that he boarded the main line local train, mistaking it for the Lexington branch train, and was put-off a mile west of town, after the train had been stopped, and at that time no accident had befallen him.

He then started to return to the depot, and everything points to his having been injured in an attempt to board the outgoing branch train while it was moving at a good rate of speed.

DR. JONES WRITES

OF SIGHTS SEEN AT CAPE MAY, NEW JERSEY.

CLAMS AND CRABS RIPE.

And as a Result the Doctor Has Had a Salubrious Time—Starts for Home Today.

Rev. Dr. William Jones, presiding elder of the M. E. church for the Sedalia district, writing to the DEMOCRAT from Cape May, N. J., under date of August 11th, says "the clams and soft-shell crabs are ripe," and he is "having a salubrious time." Under the caption of "Things seen and heard at the seaside," Dr. Jones writes:

Dear Readers of the Democrat:

For once we concluded to leave the plebeian hordes that congregate in the woods and mountains and at the sea shore—for religious worship or for amusement—and find a little respite from the ordinary routine of life in this aristocratic resort, where the millionaires and the magnates assemble to spend the heated term, to bathe in the surf and feed on the productions of the sea. (This is headquarters of the gold men.)

This is where ex-President Harrison has been sojourning, but he has now gone to the White mountains.

Mr. Wanamaker's cottage is here, and the ex-secretary is here with his family for the season; and this leads me to speak of Wanamaker's "big joke," as they call it here. It is immense—more elaborate than the celebrated Columbian stamp and wrought in much more gorgeous colors.

On Sabbath, August 6th, the First Methodist Episcopal church of Cape May City was to have been dedicated. Rev. Dr. Blank was secured to preach the sermon, and everything seemed propitious. The astute trustees, thinking to get $50, more or less, out of the ex-secretary, secured his services for one of the half hour speeches in the afternoon. The morning service was a great success. The doctor acquitted himself to the satisfaction of everybody, and the afternoon audience assembled in the very height of expectancy.

Mr. Wanamaker addressed them for two hours and a half on the national finances, which he painted in the darkest colors, making the most for his partisan views out of the situation and predicting absolute ruin of business.

He emphasized his regret that the enterprise had been projected under such financial conditions, and, in conclusion, expressed his conviction that they could not raise the money to pay the balance of the debt; also his belief that if they were not well fortified they might lose their property, and when, at half-past six, he had finished his speech, the pastor adjourned the disgusted and weary audience without making an effort to raise a dollar or dedicate the house. Indignation is high and the house will be dedicated about the last Sabbath of this month.

The sources of amusement are very varied. The merry-go-round is as popular here as in the west, and the steam toboggan, bowling alley and wheel of fortune all under the same roof. The bathers are gaily attired, but not the one-tenth as numerous as they are at Atlantic City or Asbury park.

There are many shows—shows of almost every variety, exhibitions of beauty, of exquisite taste and artistic decoration. No flesh-colored bathing suits are seen. The dark colors, gaily trimmed, predominate. Then there is a museum where there are some Egyptian mummies on exhibition, where the dried and mouldy dust of the Pharaohs and their kindred are exhibited for so much per sight.

It appears to me this is a proper place to have such a show. These same Pharaohs, during the period of the twelfth dynasty, used to hold great revels in the palace, and when the festivities were at their height their servants would bring out a mummy from some worm-eaten sarcophagus, made of wood, and prance it around among the rioters so that each guest should look upon it. It was a continuous reminder that we dwell in the midst of death, and reminds one of the old legend of the skeleton at the feast.

But there are some very amusing incidents here as well as at other places. Yesterday as we loitered in the shade of some trees near the upper hydrant, two well dressed and elegant looking ladies came up the walk from one of the hotels. Each one carried a pet dog and they proceeded to give the canines a bath in the pond below the tank. They appli-

THE RAILROADS.

The railroad man without a job these days is certainly playing in hard luck.

Master Mechanic S. P. Weller visited Kansas City yesterday afternoon and returned at midnight.

Detective Frank Barnett, of the Missouri Pacific, suffered with a congestive chill yesterday and is laid up at home to-day.

A number of clerks in the general offices of the M., K. & T. in Parsons have been temporarily laid off until business picks up.

General Manager Frey, of the Santa Fe, positively denies the report that a cut of 10 per cent had been ordered in the salaries of all employees on the system. He says that such an order has not even been contemplated by the officers of the company. However, men are being laid off in all departments where their services can be dispensed with without interfering with the efficiency of the service.

Pete Wedell, a former Sedalian, at which time he ran an engine on the Missouri Pacific, but now living at Atchison, Kansas, where he represents the Pettis County Bond and Investment Co., passed west yesterday afternoon, on his way home from St. Louis. Pete had his scalp removed and skull fractured while in the employ of the Missouri Pacific a year or so ago, his head being struck by a stand pipe while leaning out of his engine, and he now has a suit pending against the company for $50,000 damages.

How to Get Rid of Train Robbers.

An official of the M., K. & T. in a talk with a Parsons Sun reporter on the train robbery industry, among other things said: "Dead train robbers are absolutely harmless, and the most rational way to treat any member of the guild is to shoot him whenever and wherever he is found plying his vocation. Let the railroads put guards on their trains whose business it will be to kill any train robber who shows himself. Such men are easily found and when the railroads begin to haul in dead bandits, as well as dynamite-shattered express cars, the business of train robbing will soon cease to thrive."

Business Has Been Better.

"Like all other Missouri Pacific railroad agents, I received a circular from headquarters asking if it was not possible to reduce expenses," said Mr. John J. Church, agent at Jefferson City. "I replied that I could not do so and supplemented this with a statement showing that the business at this point for the present year is much greater than last year. On such a showing as this my force will not be cut down. It is a fact that business at this city has decidedly increased. To a great extent this is due to shipments to and from the penitentiary."

A Heavy Reduction.

The heavy and perhaps largest reduction made on the M., K. & T. was ordered and executed last night and this morning by the road department of Texas, says the Denison Herald of Saturday. By this order over 500 employees are out of work, making a saving of about $15,000 per month to the "Katy." Trackmen and section people are the principal losers. The order was direct from headquarters and it is now thought that wholesale reductions will occur at other points on the road. This makes about 700 employees out on the M., K. & T. of Texas.

The M., K. & E's Plans.

The latest railroad survey from Holden to Boonville, that of the Missouri, Kansas and Eastern branch railroad, Chief Engineer Vandenschen says, will cross the Lamine river three times in Cooper county, thence to Chouteau Springs to form a junction with the main line of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas at a point three miles north-east of Pilot Grove, called Chouteau Station.

Removal.

To my patrons and the public of Sedalia: I take this opportunity of thanking you for the very liberal patronage extended to me in my former place of business just vacated for want of room to accommodate the increasing demands. I therefore solicit a continuation of your favors in my new spacious, thoroughly ventilated, healthy and modern built new quarters, situated on Fourth street, one block west of the court house.

Special care taken of boarders entrusted in my hands, both in regard to their feed and health.

Respectfully,

JOHN A. COLLINS.

A South Sedalia Sensation.

South Sedalia has a sensation in which two church members, each in the neighborhood of 60 years old, figure. The female in the case was sitting up at a house where there was sickness the other night, and was escorted home at a late hour by a gray-haired friend of the family. It is alleged that an insulting proposal was made by the man on reaching the woman's residence, and a church trial is being talked of.
